
Week 2

Greg King
L1 - ANGLAIS Remediation

SWOT ANALYSIS TEMPLATE

STRENGTHS

WEAKNESSES

OPPORTUNITIES

THREATS

Get Into Groups !

Have you ever experienced culture shock related to time when traveling or working abroad?

Which do you think matters more in business: efficiency or relationships?

Vocab	Definition
1) Cultural relativity	A. The ability to adjust one's style depending on the environment or culture.
2) Authority figure	B. A model or system used to explain and organize complex ideas.
3) Facilitate	C. The recognition that cultural traits can look very different depending on perspective.
4) Punctuality	D. A person in a position of power or leadership.
5) Framework	E. A group of people from different countries working together.
6) Flexible leadership	F. Nuanced or not immediately obvious difficulties.
7) Subtle challenges	G. Dependability in being on time.
8) Cultural map	H. A visual or conceptual tool Erin Meyer uses to compare cultures across dimensions.
9) Trust-building	I. The process of establishing reliability and mutual respect in professional relationships.
10) Global team	J. To guide or make something easier without directly controlling it.

Do you agree with the phrase “time is money”?

Why or why not?

How does your own culture typically view being on time ?

Handouts
